PUBLIC COMMENTS:

Harold Close, 332 Fieldbrook Dr., Washington – I am here to let the council know that I am bringing suit against John Severine, our attorney is drafting the letter. One day when I was down in east end Canonsburg, John was going door to door having a petition signed. I'm sure as elected officials you know that you can't go door to door with petitions in opposition of an upcoming agenda item. We are in the process of making an application with our engineer group. Basically, I think John is acting independently, and I don't think that council has anything to do with this or is aware of his illegal actions or what he has done. I would like to put you on notice that any information coming from Mr. Dalfonso, he works for the borough, does not work for John independently and any legal advice should not come from him as it would be wasting council's time and the residents of Canonsburg's retainer fees. So, that letter is forth coming, and I am respectfully asking this council to tell Mr. Severine to cease and desist. Again, a lawsuit is coming forward and for him to recuse himself from anything that has to do with the corner of 546 Euclid/409 Perry Como Ave.

PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS:

We have two new members to our junior council which are Medha Biradar and Bella Santoro. We also have those who still is on junior council, Ally West who has been with us for the last 7-8 months and Maddie who has been with us the last 7-8 months. Prior to that we had Matthew Thomas who is now graduated and now in college and Ethan Buckovinsky who will be graduating this year; however, he had some other responsibilities so he could not carry on. So, welcome and we will actually get you guys sworn in today.

My last comment is congratulations to Canon McMillan High School Wrestling Team which placed 4th in the state.
